C. Attendance and participation of States not members of the Conference

9. In accordance with the rules of procedure and the decision taken at its 1990 session on its improved and effective functioning (CD/1036), the Conference received 39 requests for participation in its work as contained in CD/WP.650 and Add.1. The Conference did not take any decision on the requests, due to different views on procedural aspects. The views of delegations on the matter are duly reflected in the plenary records.

D. Agenda and programme of work for the 2023 session

10. At its 1645th plenary meeting on 24 January 2023, a draft agenda was presented by the first President of the Conference and reviewed in accordance with rule 29 of the rules of procedure. The Conference on Disarmament adopted the following agenda (CD/2313) for the 2023 session (CD/PV.1645):

“Taking into account, inter alia, the relevant provisions of the Final Document of the First Special Session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament, and deciding to resume its consultations on the review of its agenda, and without prejudice to their outcome, the Conference adopts the following agenda for its 2023 session:

1. Cessation of the nuclear arms race and nuclear disarmament.
2. Prevention of nuclear war, including all related matters.
3. Prevention of an arms race in outer space.
4. Effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons.
5. New types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons; radiological weapons.
6. Comprehensive programme of disarmament.
7. Transparency in armaments.
8. Consideration and adoption of the annual report and any other report, as appropriate, to the General Assembly of the United Nations.”

11. Subsequently, the first President of the Conference made the following statement: “In connection with the adoption of the agenda, I, as the President of the Conference, should like to state that it is my understanding that if there is a consensus in the Conference to deal with any issues, they could be dealt with within this agenda. The Conference will also take into consideration rules 27 and 30 of the rules of procedure of the Conference.”

12. The first President of the Conference, the second President of the Conference and the third President of the Conference conducted intensive consultations with a view to reaching consensus on a decision regarding a programme of work on the basis of the informal proposal circulated to Member States, as contained in CD/WP.652. Delegations expressed their views on the issue of a programme of work, taking account of relevant proposals and suggestions, which are duly reflected in the plenary records (CD/PV.1653). However, in accordance with the Rules of Procedure, as noted by the third President of the Conference, despite these efforts, the Conference did not succeed in reaching a consensus on a programme of work. Therefore, no further consultations on this matter were held.

E. Expansion of the membership of the Conference

13. The question of the expansion of the membership of the Conference was addressed by delegations in plenary meetings. Their views on the issue are duly reflected in the plenary records.
