Proposal by Trinidad and Tobago

Trinidad and Tobago proposes that the following text be included in the concluding document:

"Drug traffickers who, in the course of their illicit trade, transfer across national boundaries or authorize such transfer of prohibited weapons and weapons which cause unnecessary human suffering are to be deemed internationally criminally liable for their actions. The General Assembly, therefore, decides to request the Secretary-General to examine the links of the use and international transfer of such prohibited weapons and weapons which cause unnecessary human suffering with the illicit trafficking of drugs and to submit a report on the matter to it at its forty-fourth session."
